Detailed Action

1. Applicant's Information disclosure statement, received 06/14/ 2001, paper # 4 is acknowledged.
2. Applicant's preliminary amendment A, received 3/14/2001, paper # 6 is acknowledged. Applicant amended claims 3, 4, 5, and 7. New claims 10-12 were added.
3. Claims 1-12 are pending and under consideration.

Abstract

4. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it exceeds one paragraph. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure. The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details. The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Specification

5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
Page 1 of the specification has a sticker with an express mail number. Appropriate correction is required.

Priority

6. An application in which the benefits of an earlier application are desired must contain a specific reference to the prior application(s) in the first sentence of the specification (37 CFR 1.78).

Complete priority statement is missing from specification:

A statement reading, " This application claims priority to a German application No. 100 14 708.9, filed on 3/24/2000" should be entered following the title of the invention or as the first sentence of the specification.

Should applicant desire to obtain the benefit of foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d) a translation of the foreign application should be submitted under 37 CFR 1.55 in reply to this action. A claim for priority under 35 U.S.C. 119 (a) (d) (e) cannot be based on said application, until proper corrections are made.

Double Patenting

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 1-12 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,150,173. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of current application and Patent No. 6,150,173 are both drawn to an automated method for determining or identifying cell-specific target structures or molecular classes.

9. Claims 1-12 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-15 of copending Application No. 09/808,224. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of both applications are drawn to an automated method for determining or identifying cell-specific target structures or molecular classes.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

10. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

11. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the surface" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

It is not clear what constitutes the metes and bounds of Yn (n= 2, 3,, N) and Xn (n= 2, 3,, N) in claims 4, 9, 10 and 12.

It is not clear what applicant intends in recitation of "in particular a protein separation process" in claim 5. The process is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a definition, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

It is not clear what applicant intends in recitation of " by means of a molecule or molecular complex separation process " in claim 5. The process is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a definition, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Conclusion
